

Chandra Lee is an Instructor of Legal Analysis and Communication at Mississippi College School of Law, where she has taught Legal Writing and Oral Advocacy to First and Second Year Law Students since 2004. She graduated magna cum laude from the University of Mississippi in 1993 and from Mississippi College School of Law in 1997, where she was a member of the Moot Court Board, winner of the annual internal Appellate Advocacy Competition, and Brief Writer and Oral Advocate on a national moot court competition team. She is Chair of the Mississippi Tennis Association's Junior Tennis Council and serves as a Member of the River Hills Club Tennis Committee. She frequently presents on Legal Writing issues at Continuing Legal Education Conferences. She is a member of the Mississippi Bar's Access to Justice Committee, which strives to place new attorneys in underserved Mississippi communities. She is a member of the Legal Writing Institute and the Association of Legal Writing Directors.