

Aaron Streett is the Chairman of Baker Botts' Supreme Court and Constitutional Law Practice. He has presented oral argument in scores of appeals, covering the U.S. Supreme Court and courts around the country—including over 25 arguments in the Fifth Circuit alone. Mr. Streett's practice involves all substantive areas of the law, including commercial litigation, statutory interpretation, constitutional law, administrative law, securities, and jurisdictional issues. Mr. Streett maintains an active practice in the Supreme Court of the United States, having represented parties in merits cases six times since 2010, as well as filing numerous amicus and certiorari-stage briefs.

Mr. Streett was named one of only six "Appellate MVPs" for 2014 by Law360, which had previously recognized him in 2011 as one of the top five appellate "Rising Stars" under age 40.

Mr. Streett has been featured on National Law Journal's Appellate Hot List three times in recent years and in 2021 was named Houston's "Lawyer of the Year" for Appellate Practice by Best Lawyers magazine.

Mr. Streett speaks regularly on the Supreme Court and constitutional law to attorneys and law students around the country. Following graduation from law school, Mr. Streett served as a law clerk to the Honorable David B. Sentelle of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit and to the Honorable William H. Rehnquist, Chief Justice of the United States.
